MUSIC

As each of the Nations enters, a chorus sings its National anthem:—

| | | | | | | |
|---------|---|---|---|---|---|----------------------------|
| England | . | . | . | . | . | "Rule Britannia" |
| Russia | . | - | . | . | . | "God Save the Noble Czar" |
| America | . | . | . | . | . | "The Star Spangled Banner" |

When Russia becomes free, the chorus sings, "Young Russia," the first musical manifestation of the Russian Revolution.

France leads the nations to war to "The Marseillaise."

The Red Cross Nurses enter to the Hymn of Thanksgiving.

When the war worn Allies return after the first encounter with Germany leading in the new Allies, Japan and Italy, they enter to the Japanese national anthem.

America's children come in singing "America the Beautiful."

The Characters go out to the Recessional by Kipling set to DeKoven's music.

Music in charge of Mrs. Charlotte Williams Hill.

Costumes—Miss Julia Mikell.

Business Manager—Mr. William Newberry Palmer.
